

Courtesy photo

Bachand wins first place in B Class

Garrett Bachand, 17, Salida, competes in Round 6 of the Rocky Mountain Enduro Circuit June 2 in Bennett. Bachand took first place overall in the B Class. The win puts him in first place overall in the series, his father, Darren Bachand, said. His next race, Round 4 of the Colorado Off-Road Championship Series, will take place June 23 in Idaho Springs.

Photo by Dow Stewart

Stroke Play Championship

Winners of the Stroke Play Championship Golf Tournament stand by the scoreboards Saturday at Salida Golf Club. From left are Chris Dewberry, third flight net winner; Ryan Traverna, second flight net winner; Scott Breunich, first flight net winner; Wendy Rombold, ladies' gross winner; Joanne Braucht, ladies' net winner; and Dave Chelf, gross winner. Salida Golf Club pro Dow Stewart said proceeds from the tournament will be used for upgraded distance markers on the course. The next tournament, for parents and children, will be Sunday.

School board holds budget review

The Salida school board will hold a work session for budget review at 5 p.m. today in the Kesner Building.

The board's regular meeting will take place at the same location at 6 p.m.

During the regular meeting school board members will:

- Consider the proposed budget for 2013-14.
- Consider a request from Donna Wagle for full-time art.

- Consider a backpack program funding request.
- Consider additional funding for adding middle school sports and changes for the drama department.

Color.

Makes an ad stand out!

Put a color photo or logo in your ad!

The Mountain Mail • 539-6691